Mr. Cheney of Newport asked for a suspension of the rules to permit him to introduce the following entitled bill :

An act in addition to chapter 3 and chapter 35, General Laws, further defining the qualifications of legislative officers, and the duties of the assistant clerk of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Page of Haverhill called for a reading of the bill for the information of the House, and the bill was read by the clerk.

RULES SUSPENDED.

The rules were suspended, the bill read a first and second time and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr. Page of Haverhill, —

Resolved, That the rules of the House for the last session be the rules of the House for the present session until otherwise ordered by the House, and that the joint rules of the Senate and House for the last session be adopted as the joint rules of the Senate and House for the present session until otherwise ordered by the House.

On motion of Mr. Page of Haverhill, —

Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed on the part of the House, with such as the Senate may join, to wait on His Excellency the Governor and inform him that a quorum of both branches of the Legislature have assembled in accordance with his proclamation, are organized, and ready to meet in convention to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

The speaker appointed as members of such committee on the part of the House :

AFTERNOON.

(The speaker in the chair.)

On motion of Mr. Gould of Manchester, —

Resolved, That the honorable Senate be requested to meet the House of Representatives immediately in joint convention, for the purpose of receiving any communication that His Excellency the Governor may have to make at the present session of the Legislature.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

The following message was received from the honorable Senate by their clerk :

Mr. Speaker :

The Senate concur with the House of Representatives in the appointment of a committee to wait on His Excellency the Governor and inform him that the Legislature is now organized and is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make, and join on their part Senators Means, Balcom, and Moses.

IN CONVENTION.

The Senate having met the House in joint convention, His Excellency the Governor, having been duly announced, appeared before the convention and read the following message :

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives :

Since the election in this State on the 4th of November last, grave questions have arisen in regard to the powers and duties of the clerk of the present House of Representatives, and in regard to the constitutional and legal rights of many towns to representation in the Legislature that will convene on the first Wednesday in January next. Out of these questions have grown radical differences of opinion and fierce contentions, which threaten the peace and dignity of the State. In the belief that it is entirely within the province of your honorable bodies to take such action as will decide these questions beyond dispute, and thereby rescue the State from impending peril, I have summoned you to assemble in extra session.

The Constitution, as amended in 1889, forbids the classing of towns for the election of representatives to the General Court, and thereby the towns formerly classed come under the constitutional provision that they shall be pro rated for the purpose of electing such representatives. The Legislature at its last session neglected to determine the proportionate part of time to which such towns may be entitled to representation. It is plain that the inhabitants of such towns are entitled to a fair representation. I understand that each of the towns formerly classed has elected a representative. By a plain construction of the Constitution none of them are entitled to admission.

Again, the Constitution allows one representative to every town and ward having six hundred inhabitants, and an additional representative for every twelve hundred additional people. A large number of representatives have been elected in towns and wards according to the increase of population as shown by the census of 1890. The clerk, in making up his roll of members of the House of Representatives in 1881, did not include the names of those elected under similar circumstances. The next day after the organization of the House, Mr. Hatch of Greenland introduced a resolution declaring that these men had a right to membership. This resolution was referred to the Judiciary Committee, upon which Mr. Bingham of Littleton, for the committee, made the following report: "That according to the requirements of the Constitution of New Hampshire, representation in the present House is based on the census of the United States taken in the year 1880."

The House unanimously adopted this report, overruled the action of the clerk, and declared that these men were entitled to membership. This action of the House was based on the report presented by the Judiciary Committee, that such additional representatives were entitled to their seats, not by the favor or votes of the House, but as a matter of constitutional right.

What action should be taken by you under these circumstances I submit to your candid consideration. I regret exceedingly the circumstances that made it necessary to put you to the trouble and the State to the expense of assembling in extra session, and I hope the work before you will be cheerfully and quickly accomplished.

On motion of Mr. Huntington of Hanover, the convention rose.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Faulkner of Keene, for the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the House bill entitled "An act in addition to chapter 3 and chapter 35 of the General Laws, further defining the qualifications of legislative officers, and the duties of the assistant clerk of the House of Representatives," having considered the same, reported the same in a new draft and recommended its passage.

The bill in a new draft, as reported by the committee, was read once, and on motion of Mr. Cheney of Newport, the rules were suspended and the bill read a second and third time, passed, and sent to the Senate for their concurrence.

Mr. Bingham of Littleton, for the Committee on the Judiciary, presented the following report :

The Committee on the Judiciary, feeling that an appropriate expression from this House is due to the memory of General Marston, report the following resolution and recommend its adoption :

Resolved, That we entertain profound respect for the life and character of our late associate, Gilman Marston, and we make this testimonial of our estimate of him, that he was an honest man, a good citizen, a wise legislator, a true patriot, and a brave soldier.

The report was accepted and the resolution unanimously adopted.

On motion of Mr. McCollester of Marlborough, —

Resolved, That in the death of Samuel D. Lord, Esq., of Manchester, since the last session of this House, we bemoan our loss of one who had proved himself in an unostentatious manner a faithful representative, an earnest and wise member of the Committee of Education, in years past a popular clerk of the House of Representatives, a successful lawyer, a wise educator, and an inestimable man.

On motion of Mr. Hadley of Weare, —

Resolved, That in the death of George M. Moore of Pittsfield and John F. Bohan of Ward 5, Manchester, the Legislature of New Hampshire loses two upright and honorable members, whose presence is missed at this time. We recognize the loss of two affable and unassuming gentlemen, whose conduct made them worthy of and creditable to the position of honor and trust to which they were elevated by their fellow citizens.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION.

Mr. Sanders of Laconia gives notice of his intention to move to reconsider the vote passed yesterday instructing the clerk to place upon the roll of the House the name of Edmond Blais of Pittsburg.

Mr. Cummings, for the Committee on the Judiciary, stated that the committee would not be able to make any report this forenoon, but hoped to be able to do so at the coming in of the House this afternoon.

Mr. Sanders of Laconia, agreeably to his previous notice, moved that the vote whereby the House authorized the clerk to put the name of Edmond Blais on the roll be reconsidered, and that the matter be referred to the Committee on Elections.

(Discussion ensued.)

Mr. Page of Haverhill opposed the motion and stated that no advantage was taken or intended in the placing of the name of Mr. Blais on the roll, and it did not involve any of the questions that are now agitating the people.

Mr. Branch of Weare also opposed the motion.

Mr. Speaker :

The Senate concur with the House of Representatives in the passage of the following resolution :

Resolved, That a committee of ten be appointed by the House, with such as the Senate may join, to wait upon His Excellency the Governor, and inform him that the Legislature has completed the business of the session and is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make ;

And join as members of said committee on their part, Senators Ezra S. Stearns, Nute, and Perkins.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Mr. Sanders of Laconia, for the committee appointed to wait upon His Excellency the Governor and inform him that the Legislature has completed the business of the session, reported that the committee had attended to that duty and that the Governor had a communication to lay before the House of Representatives.

The report was accepted, and immediately His Excellency David H. Goodell, Governor, appeared in the House of Representatives and delivered the following message :

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE,

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,

CONCORD, December 5, 1890.

To the House of Representatives :

Having been informed by a committee of both branches that the Legislature has completed the business before it and is ready to be adjourned, it is again my duty to declare a final adjournment of this body. The acts and resolutions passed by you have all received my approval ; their number is eight. I congratulate you upon the speedy and harmonious transaction of the business you were called together to perform, and I wish you a pleasant journey to your homes. I do now, by the authority vested in me, hereby adjourn the Legislature to the last Wednesday in December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety.

D. H. GOODELL, Governor.

Whereupon the speaker declared the House adjourned to the last Wednesday of December, 1890.
